

11th Annual Savor St. Pete Food & Wine Festival Moves to Vinoy Park for an Elevated Foodie Experience

St. Petersburg, FL — Foodies, wine enthusiasts, and craft beer aficionados – this is your chance to SIP, SAVOR, and REPEAT! The highly anticipated 11th annual SAVOR St. Pete food & wine festival is ready to launch an unforgettable weekend. With overwhelming growth, the festival has found a new home at the beautiful Vinoy Waterfront Park, gracing the shores of Tampa Bay in stunning downtown St. Petersburg. The event will host a captivating celebration of cuisine for thousands of local and visiting foodies on Saturday, November 4th, and Sunday, November 5th.

Under four elegant tents sprawling over 40,000 square feet, overlooking the breathtaking Tampa Bay, SAVOR St. Pete will take attendees on a culinary journey. This is what you can expect:

- The heart of the festival, the Grand Tasting Village, will feature a collection of culinary personalities, restaurants, national brands, wineries, and craft breweries.
- Enjoy interactive cooking demonstrations on the SAVOR Cooking Stage sponsored by San Pellegrino, featuring local and national chef talent, as well as brand activations, bites, sips and giveaways from presenting sponsor Publix, and over 50 national brand partners.

"This year's festival is more than just an event; it's a culinary adventure that promises to excite, enlighten, educate and connect our guests," shared Tammy Gail, the visionary founder and producer of SAVOR St. Pete. "Our new location at Vinoy Waterfront Park elevates the experience, offering a stunning backdrop that perfectly complements the flavors that await."

Tickets to SAVOR St. Pete are all-inclusive, providing guests with unlimited access to food, wine, and beer samplings, live DJ entertainment, a limited-edition wine glass + wine lanyard, and a custom SAVOR St. Pete tote bag. For those with a taste for elevated experiences, the always-sold-out VIP ticket offers unparalleled, private access into the VIP tent with comfortable furniture groupings and unlimited tastings of some of the most premier and boutique spirits brands. The VIP ticket is competitive to secure and we advise booking early.

General Admission is priced at $105 per person and gives guests access to the event from 1PM-4PM. VIP tickets are available for $145 per person and include early entry into the event at 12PM, as well as exclusive access to the premier VIP Spirits Lounge.

"We are proud to host local and traveling foodies each year. We invite guests to join us in celebrating the vibrant culinary community that makes St. Pete and the surrounding Tampa area a culinary destination," Tammy Gail shared.
